Programme for the second half of 2019

Time: 09:30 for 10:00 at the NG Kerk, Skuilkrans

2 July 2019 The History and Value of Reach for Dream

Mervyn Serebro, Chairman of Reach for a Dream, will speak to us about this wonderful organisation that does so much to give special experiences to young people who have life-threatening illnesses.

6 August 2019 Your Garden

Sharon Wiese, an experienced horticulturalist and garden landscaper will take us on an entertaining and informative journey to learn more about plants and gardens, what goes where and why in our climate, about being water-wise, and so on. She will be happy to answer your questions.

3 September 2019 The Trials and Tribulations of a Translator

Eleanor Cornelius, Chairperson of the SA Translators Institute and a Professor at the University of Johannesburg, will enlighten and entertain us with an audio visual presentation on the challenges facing translators.

Please note that this talk will be given in the hall, not the church.

1 October 2019 Stories from the Veld

David Bristow is the author of some 20 books, mostly on travel and South African natural history. An ex-Highvelder, he now lives in Cape Town but travels extensively to research material for new books. He will be here as part of his 2019 research trip, and will tell us about his books and how he became a writer.

Books will be available for sale and for signing.

5 November 2019 The Magic of Spices

Gita Jivan, owner of the Geet Restaurant in Brooklyn, will share her secrets about the correct use of spices in some favourite dishes. This "spice queen" will also demonstrate a few spicy recipes.

A group of dancers will complete the Indian experience, ending the year on a high note.
